

IEEE Registration Authority Logical Link Control (LLC) Application

The terms, namely; address type designation bit, command/response identifier bit and actual address are defined in ISO/IEC 8802-2. See ISO/IEC 8802-2 clause 3.3.1.1 items (2), (3), and (4). The format of LLC addresses is defined in ISO/IEC 8802-2. For more information refer to Annex A in the 11802-1 technical report. An individual actual address values does not necessarily have any relationship with group address of the same actual address.

The application can be faxed or mailed to the Registration Authority. After completing, please attach an explanatory/rationale statement detailing the intended use of the LLC assignment to the application.

The review and approval process will be completed in less than 150 days. If the application is placed on hold for any reason, the applicant has 30 days to rectify the problem. If the problem is not rectified within 30 days, the application will be terminated and the applicant can re-apply once the issue has been resolved. An assignment is received within 7 business days of approval and received payment.

Make sure that all sections of the form are completed.
